MR. SPEAKER.—The question is :

“That the Public Wakfs (Extension of Limitation) (Karnataka Amendment) Bill, 1978, as passed by the Legislative Council, be passed.”

The motion was adopted and the Bill was passed

Expunction of some word/words from the proceedings

MR. SPEAKER.—There was some discussion while the Hon’ble Minister for Education was replying to the Call Attention Notice. Some hon’ble members objected to the use of one sentence of the Hon’ble Chief Minister. I have ordered for expunction of those words.

Again Sri J. H. Patel spoke some words. I have perused the proceedings carefully. I order for expunction of those sentences also. Again when the hon’ble Member Sri Ibrahim was speaking.....

SRI K. H. RANGANATH.—May I submit for the Chair’s consideration, though it is not proper to question the ruling of the Chair? What the Hon’ble Chief Minister submitted was that “if I have used the words I withdraw and apologise”. Therefore, the question of expunction is not arise. He has already stated that he will withdraw them and when he has withdrawn those words, those words will not come in to the records. I request the Chair to kindly reconsider ordering of expunction of those sentences.

SRI J. H. PATEL.—The Chair knows the procedure for expunction. Here if the Hon'ble Chief Minister has uttered a sentence and if he says that 'if I have uttered I shall apologise and withdraw', both the things go into the records. If there is no expunction whatever he has stated and apologised will go into the records.

SRI K. H. RANGANATH.—My hon'ble friend will kindly follow what was stated was immediately when the hon'ble member took objection. The Hon'ble Chief Minister was kind enough to rise and say that if I have used those words and if they are in the records I withdraw and apologise. That means to say, if they are there in the proceedings they also go. Therefore, I think expunction may not arise. You may kindly consider.

SRI J. H. PATEL.—After the ruling is given if it were to be reconsidered it will become a precedent.

SRI K. H. RANGANATH.—I am only submitting to the Chair. Ruling is given and I submit it is not proper to question. But I am only submitting that he can revise the ruling in the light of my submission.

SRI J. H. PATEL.—Sir, I submit that if the Chair were to revise the Ruling that expunction is not necessary, whatever I have said should also find a place.

SRI S.R. BOMMAI.—Sir, the submission of the Hon'ble Minister for Parliamentary Affairs is not correct. I have also said certain things and then I have said: "I am sorry, I withdraw those words". There should be a Ruling to take away such things from the records. Therefore, a Ruling is necessary.
